

Day 1. Read Genesis 17:1-8

1. God changed the names of Abram, Sarai, Saul, Peter, and numerous others. What's the significance of God changing a person's name?
2. Read Genesis 17:8 and Revelation 21:1-3 - When God says "An everlasting possession, and I will be their God", what do you think He's foretelling?
3. Who do you believe God is making you to be and what name would you hope He would give you?

Day 2 Read Genesis 17:9-14

1. Why do you think God chose circumcision as a sign of the covenant between He and Man?
2. Read Galatians 6:12-15 - How do you reconcile this physical action with the idea of "salvation through faith alone"?
3. How has your sexuality pushed you away from or towards the Lord?

Day 3 Read Genesis 17:15-21 and Luke 1:26-37

1. Why do you think God chooses to use impossible circumstances to execute His plan?
2. When you look at your life, what circumstance are you facing that looks and feels impossible?

Day 4 Read Genesis 17:22-29, Acts 9:10-19, and Luke 18:18-23

1. Why does God call His followers into an obedience that requires pain, sacrifice, and difficult leadership?
2. What painful obedience is God calling you into, or to lead your family through?
