DAY 01 |

Principle:
The desires of a man reveal which kingdom is controlling his heart.

Read Matthew 6:19-21, Jeremiah 17:9, Proverbs 19:21, Mark 7:21-23, and Ezekiel 36:26

1. What is the nature of treasure in the kingdom of man? How does it compare to treasure in the kingdom of heaven?

2. How do you know which kingdom's treasure you pursue the most? Describe what you see in yourself.

DAY 02 |

Principle:
A man who trusts money more than God will never submit to God's authority.

Read Matthew 6:22-24, 1 Timothy 6:17, Hebrews 13:5, and Proverbs 11:28

1. How does our view of money affect our trust in God?

2. How do you know when you aren't trusting God? What do you find yourself trusting instead?

DAY 03 |

Principle:
Jesus says that anxiety reveals a lack of trust in God.

Read Matthew 6:25-34, John 14:1, Isaiah 41:10, Proverbs 29:25, and Psalm 56:3-4

1. Three times Jesus says, "Therefore do not be anxious." What comes before these "therefore" statements, and what does each say about why we should not be anxious?

2. What is the greatest source of anxiety in your life, and how often does that fear affect you?

DAY 04 |

Principle:
By seeking the kingdom of God first, we open the way for God to meet all our needs.

Read Matthew 6:25-34, 17:27, 2 Thessalonians 3:10-12, Proverbs 14:23, Philippians 4:19, and Psalm 37:3-5

1. If God knows we need material items like food, clothing, and shelter, why does He require us to work for them?

2. What do you expect God to provide beyond what you truly need? How, according to Jesus, should you manage those expectations?
