MISSION STATEMENT

HEART OF A MAN.

2022 was a remarkable year. Heart of a Man saw hundreds of new men come to our various programming. We witnessed men place growth in faith and community as a priority in their personal journey, some for the first time ever.

We completed our study of the Book of John, where over 150 men participated across 18 small groups for 23 weeks. We hosted our largest annual bonfire and slingshot event to date with more fathers bringing their children than ever before. We launched numerous new "HEART" groups where men fought to grow emotionally and heal.

We published and launched the Deep Waters Project Journal and hosted workshops to help men learn to study the Bible effectively using that tool, and we saw the local church grow in membership through men attending Heart of a Man.

Together, with our leaders and financial supporters, the Kingdom of Jesus grew, men pursued healthy relationships, restored marriages, engaged with their kids, and left broken habits behind. All of this accomplished through the one true king.... Jesus.

Our partnership with College Park Church, our host church, has grown stronger than ever. We've all worked incredibly hard to shape and develop a model that fully engages the local church and works together to effectively reach the community.

Heart of a Man is adhering to our mission statement statement: We are deeply committed to helping men know, love, and serve Jesus above all else. Our mission continues to expand with new initiatives such as "HOAM Work", where we are mobilizing men in the community to serve widows and vulnerable women, filling the gaps where men are absent. It's through sacrificial service where we are seeing men experience the joy of using their abilities to meet real needs.

As you'll see in the following pages, the work of Heart of a Man is being accomplished through the selfless giving of the Board, Executive team, 38 active volunteer leaders and hundreds of members. All of these men have been led by the Holy Spirit to take part in the transformative work of investing in the lives of others. We are immensely grateful to be working together with a Kingdom purpose.

Thank you for your support and love! We look forward to many more years together, re-building the American family one man at a time.

CONNECTING.

Community is at the center
of everything we do:
helping men find at least one life-long, trusted friend who they could call in a time of need.

OUR MISSION.

Heart of a Man's vision has remained steadfast since Day 1:
We will build healthy men, equipped to lead vibrant, thriving families through their passion to follow Jesus.

We accomplish this through a number of strategic initiatives designed and developed to address the complexities and pain points in a man's life.

MEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Men grow deeply in their knowledge of the scriptures and form lasting bonds with others in small groups.

"HEART" SMALL GROUPS

Smaller groups designed to help men heal from deep-seated brokenness, child-hood trauma, or ongoing hurt.

LARGE GROUP SUMMITS

A key strategic step for our future is to bring men together in a large setting to celebrate growth, foster city-wide unity, and invite new men into HOAM.

1-1 CONNECTIONS

Engaging with others over food and fun to share personal experiences, wins and losses, and walk through the challenges of life together.

FUN EVENTS

Men build lasting friendships through doing things that are adventurous, exciting, relaxing, physically demanding, competitive and filled with food!

LIFE SKILLS WORKSHOPS

Creating content and bringing in experts to talk with men and their families, equipping them with critical life skills and tools.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

HOAM leaders go through appropriate vetting followed by consistent leadership training. This ensures our leaders are equipped to proficiently support the men in their groups.

HOAM WORK

In collaboration with the local church, we mobilize men to serve widows and vulnerable individuals by fixing and repairing that which is broken in their homes.

STORIES OF US

Our personal life experiences – our joys and celebrations, as well as our pain and our brokenness – have always been a key driver behind our mission of re-building the American family one man at a time.

The following stories are those of just a few of the men who have watched Jesus work in their story and allowed HOAM to play a part in it. From the confusion of infertility to the battle of breaking addiction, their examples of Christ-centered transformation are the reason we exist.

MITCH'S STORY

It is difficult to articulate in such a short space just what Heart of a Man has meant to me, and the impact it has had on my life. This has been my emotional home for the last few years, and the amount of gratitude I feel towards Bill, his sons, and the team for creating, funding, and operating this ministry cannot be measured or even articulated. I possess a deep love for these men and could not be more proud to now serve by their side.

As an oversimplified attempt to provide context for my testimony, I would like to begin by sharing a few of the themes and significant shifts of my life. I was born into a tumultuous situation to an unstable set of parents consisting of a non-believer and a nominal believer, who separated shortly after my birth. While there were certainly many good elements to my childhood and many family members deserving of much praise for the effort and love they provided, my youth was characterized by much trauma and tribulation. My relationships with the adult men around me in particular were, at best, lacking in anything resembling Christ-like leadership and masculinity; at worst they were abusive. Peer relationships were not significantly better, as I often felt unwanted, devalued, and dejected by those I thought were my friends. The experiences of my youth carved deep scars into my soul, opening emotional wounds that bled out in self-destructive, anti-social, and downright criminal behavior for a very long time. As is so often the case, the mind creates defense mechanisms and justifications to normalize our experiences, effectively blinding us to the realities in which we live, the burdens we toil under, and the ways our actions contribute to the suffering of others.

While there were faint sparks of faith in my youngest years (largely at the behest of others), by the time I reached early adolescence, any fire that may have come forth had been long extinguished by the hypocrisy of the "Christians" around me and the perceived absence, or worse, indifference of God towards my pain. A skeptical youth gave way to a staunchly atheistic and antagonistic young adulthood, complete with all the pursuits of a young man angry at the world, scared to death, and persistently...oppressively...lonely, haunted by the demons (metaphorically and perhaps literally) of the past. Looking back, I feel a kinship with Legion from Mark 5.

Through a series of events that can only be accurately described as miraculous, the Lord reached into the darkness and drug me into the light. On 2/17/19 I literally felt the physical presence of God after several months of meeting with the Lead Pastor of Mercy Road and attending a class titled Rooted. One week later, compelled by the Holy Spirit and through a torrent of tears streaming into the pastor's wife's sweater as she held me, I relinquished control of my life, prayed the sinner's prayer, and was saved.

I was recruited to HOAM's Bible Study in 2020 by Zack Czerwonky and joined a group when they returned to meeting in person. In my third semester, I was identified by Aaron Reber as a man in need of a Heart Group. What followed were the most real, intense, painful, necessary...and good 2 years of my life. Through the selfless efforts of Aaron, Bill, Nate, and others, we slogged through the quagmire of my dysfunctional mind, battled issue after issue, and allowed Jesus to bring healing to my broken heart. To say that I am a new creation is to significantly undersell the reality of God's work in my soul through this ministry, and as many will testify, my presence in the world has fundamentally changed for the better.

Today, I am proud to report that I am emotionally healthy, standing side by side with my brothers in Christ, leading a purpose-filled life in service to the kingdom of God. For the first time I have honest, true, loving friendships, a mentor who reflects the fatherhood of God to me and real hope for the future...all things that were sorely lacking. These gifts are more precious to me than any worldly treasure. After a lifetime of wandering this earth alone, I have finally found deep friendships and healing through HOAM.

Mitch S.

DAVID'S STORY

My story with Heart of a Man goes back even before the organization was founded. The work the Lord has done in my life through my brothers helped to lay the very foundation the ministry is built upon! I sometimes have to sit and really think back to where I was emotionally, mentally, and spiritually before that time. Whenever I do catch a whisper of that mental and emotional space I was in back then, it honestly makes me shudder and also deeply thankful for all the Lord has done through the ministry of Kyle, Bill, and all the other guys who have invested in me through HOAM.

Because of my strife-filled, abusive, and chaotic home life growing up, I was a dark person loaded with fear, uncertainty, very little confidence, and a lot of suppressed anger towards my dad. Growing up, I wasn't allowed to have any personal boundaries and thus was prone to repeatedly violate the boundaries of those around me such that I paid little thought to how those around me were experiencing me.

2014 was by far the darkest and loneliest year of my life, as my behavior had caused my closest friend at the time to end our friendship. Not only was I drowning, but I was drowning him as well. As a result of this painful experience, I was convinced I had to learn to walk through life alone; to not rely or lean on anyone lest I drive them away too.

Fast forward to 2016. I met Kyle through College Park Church where he and I began to become friends. He introduced me to Bill and they both offered to start discipling me. It was an answer to a longtime, heart-cry prayer to God. Through our time together, God used these men (and later the rest of the group) to bring healing to some very deep wounds, to give validation to the pain I was hiding, to bring me out of some very deep shame and into the light. This 1-on-1 discipleship time eventually turned into what became Heart of a Man's first "Heart Group". This group gave me the safe space to learn that I not only needed community, but also how to have healthy relationships with strong boundaries, and how to respect those boundaries. This helped facilitate the restoration of that friendship that was broken a couple years prior into something better than what it was before. That friend was brought into our group, and through the ministry, God worked such a miraculous healing of his own trauma, pain and anger that he is now a heart group leader himself!

In the midst of my growth journey, I came face to face with a battle that had been raging inside of me for the majority of my life: sexual addiction. My Heart Group urged me to take the most urgent steps necessary to purge my heart of the evil I held onto so tightly, and through much prayer, I chose to spend 9 months in a rehabilitation center focused on sexual addictions. While there, the Lord purged me of my addictive habits and restored my heart back to Him. It's only by His grace that the bonds of addiction were broken and I can stand today with a pure heart serving my Savior!

While this was huge for me, maybe the greatest thing of all that God liberated me from through this process was the lethal, crippling cocktail of anger, fear, and unforgiveness towards my dad. It took 5 years of work to bring all of it to the surface, often in little bits, but other times in much bigger bites. Being in this community of men who can handle all of those strong emotions has been instrumental in my healing and releasing me from the terrible weight of shame they brought.

Bill, Kyle, and the guys gave me the tools and courage I needed to stand up to my dad where needed, but also to forgive him and grow in compassion for him as I think of the mental and emotional prison he's personally been trapped in. There's still much work to do in that relationship, but I wouldn't be able to step into that space were it not for the community of brothers God gave me through HOAM!

Dave S.

AARON'S STORY

Before Heart of a Man, I was in a terrible place. I hated my job. I was disillusioned from my ten years in politics. My relationship with my parents was highly dysfunctional. I had years of trauma that had crippled me emotionally, I hated the church, and I had developed a serious anger problem that was boiling under the surface. The only two things I had going for me were that I knew Jesus and I had a wonderful wife. Shortly after my 30th birthday, the subconscious anger issue I had erupted to the surface. I can remember someone I knew being rude to me, and I got so angry that I could hear my heart beating in my ears. At the time, I was able to control myself, but I was terrified that my anger would destroy my marriage. I reached out to my friend, Dave, who had recently shown a lot of healing after taking part in what turned out to be the first "Heart" Group. They invited me to join them, and we went to work.

They began plumbing the depths of my past, and very quickly, all of my deep-seated problems and traumas started coming out, and we began to work through them. I wish I could say everything got easier and better from there. However, God is a God of process, and things at that point got even harder. I developed severe insomnia as years' worth of repressed memories and emotions came to the surface. My job performance absolutely tanked. I had to have several serious confrontations with my parents. At one point, I was unemployed for nearly four months at the same time that my wife's business was shut down. God had to take me to the very brink and tear down everything around me in order to rebuild my life for His purpose.

Bill and the original Heart of a Man guys stuck with me all of the way through it. They helped me find a career path that actually fit my personality and skillset. They prayed with me through my unemployment and introduced me to people who helped me find a job. They taught me how to be emotionally self-aware, and worked through the emotional replacement process to heal my emotional issues and past traumas.

They slowly, in baby steps, got me back into God's Word and doing work in God's kingdom. My anger receded. I developed proper boundaries with my family and restored those relationships. My wife, seeing the changes that had occurred in me, was inspired to get help for herself, and has since grown and healed remarkably.

Today, I am in a career that has quadrupled my income, and I love doing it. I am now leading two Heart Groups of my own, and I have gotten to be there to watch God repair the lives of a dozen men. I now have a genuine passion for God's word and working in His kingdom. Time with God and reading scripture has transformed from a chore I thought I "should" do into a passionate need. Moreover, Heart of a Man taught me how to meet that need by myself, which is absolutely a required skill for me due to how much I travel for my job. I am abundantly blessed with a huge pool of genuinely close friends whom I can call upon in a time of need or just to hang out and enjoy each other's company. My disillusionment with politics has been replaced with acceptance of the ways the world works and peace, and I now help morally-guided people get elected to office as a consultant.

Ultimately I credit God for all of these things, for He is the source of all that is good in the world. However, it was absolutely the work of Heart of a Man that allowed these blessings and trials to shape my life into the joyous existence it is today. Is life easy now? No. Of course not. The world remains a challenging and, at times, scary place. However Heart of a Man helped bring Jesus into my career, my past, my family, my emotions, and my church experience, and I am now experiencing peace and joy beyond my understanding.

DOUG'S STORY

In 2021, my wife Kelly and I had just celebrated our 3-year anniversary. We had an eventful first 3 years of marriage. This included COVID lockdowns, switching wedding plans a couple of times, we canceled 3 different honeymoons, switched jobs, sold our house, moved into an apartment, and built our forever home. During this eventful time, we battled infertility. Kelly had 2 surgeries, we had 3 failed IUI attempts, and unfortunately we lost 5 babies to miscarriage.

During this period, the question of "Why God?" kept coming up in our heads. "What are we doing wrong? Are we not praying correctly? Are we not worthy of a child? Are we being punished for our sin-filled pasts? Will we ever have a child of our own?" So on and so on....

God whispered answers all along the way, and the most prevalent came in the form of Romans 12:12 (which is my life verse): "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer!" Amidst the battle, I was able to share our burden with the other leaders at Heart of a Man, where we constantly prayed every Saturday morning as a team for the Lord to somehow bring us a child.

We stopped all fertility in January 2022 (which Kelly was really not happy about at first), and somehow, outside of all understanding, God delivered a positive pregnancy test just 3 months later, along with off-the-charts HCG numbers (pregnancy hormones). Every other time Kelly was pregnant, her HCG was roughly 20... but this time, it was 7,056! This baby was truly a gift from God, and He showed us exactly what He can do when we trust, have faith, and wait for him. The day I got to celebrate with an announcement to the HOAM leadership team was surreal. The men there truly, deeply celebrated alongside me through tears and hugs. Our prayers and the prayers of my brothers were heard.

During this time of waiting, God wanted us to grow. Pastor Mark said in one service that "strong winds require deep roots". I truly believe God strengthened our roots so we can be strong together with Him for a lifetime. Kelly and I were both very immature in our faith and God needed us both to grow as Christians, Husband and Wife, and by God's grace, as of 12/2/22, Father and Mother. After a long, painful, and nearly tragic birth story, Nathaniel Douglas Abels came into the world. We don't have a doubt in our minds: our son is an immense and wonderful gift.

Amidst this battle, I know if I didn't have my personal relationship with Christ, Heart of a Man, & College Park Church, I would not have made it through this. I think my marriage would have failed, I would have run away from God, and I would have jumped "full-cannonball" into this world and all of the worldly so-called "pleasures" to try to escape the pain. If you're going through fertility, depression/anxiety, divorce, grief, or other trials and tribulations, I challenge you to run to God and NOT away from him. He loves you, He is for you, and even though life may not always be beautiful, we have a perfect eternity waiting for us at the finish line. So Be JOYFUL in HOPE, PATIENT in AFFLCTION, and FAITHFUL in PRAYER!

TONIGHT, I SHARED MY TESTIMONY AROUND DEALING WITH SHAME WITH MY SMALL GROUP AT HEART OF A MAN AND FELT INCREDIBLE PEACE. IT WAS LIKE THE SPIRIT WAS SPEAKING THROUGH ME. A LOT OF GUYS CAME UP TO ME AND THANKED ME FOR SHARING AND SAID THEY NEEDED TO HEAR THAT. GOD IS SO GOOD. HE GAVE ME THE COURAGE TO SHARE TONIGHT, AND WHAT A PERFECT TOPIC OF SHAME TO ALLOW ME TO SHARE AND RELATE IT TO THE MESSAGE. SHAME HAS BEEN WHAT THE DEVIL HAS USED AGAINST ME FOR 12 YEARS AND I'M FINALLY ABLE TO NOT ONLY FEEL THAT CLOUD OF SHAMEFULNESS LIFTED FROM ME, BUT ABLE TO SHARE IT WITH OTHERS.

I TOLD MY MOM ABOUT WHAT HAPPENED AND SHE STARTED CRYING WHEN I SAID I NOW TRULY BELIEVE I AM FORGIVEN. SHE SAID SHE HAS BEEN PRAYING FOR TWELVE YEARS FOR ME TO BE ABLE TO ACCEPT GOD'S FULL, BEAUTIFUL LOVE FOR ME AND SHE IS SO GRATEFUL THAT HER PRAYERS HAVE BEEN ANSWERED.

This includes expenses for all classes, workshops, groups, and large events, in particular, our annual bonfire and corn hole tournament, which include complimentary food for attendees.

BUILDING EXPENSE

Heart of a Man secured a headquarters office (HQ) location this year to be used for executive offices, heart groups, other small groups, 1-1 and group mentorship, leadership meetings, podcast recording, and serving as a host location for all internal and external meetings.

NET INCOME LOSS

With a cash balance of $122,600 entering 2022 from DAF grants and attendee donations, major spending focused on strategic planning using an outside consulting firm, writing and producing programming, and organizational development. These one-time, startup expenses resulted in a net loss of $73,500

Heart of a Man is proud to share the results of this year's financial strategy. Through the strong support of our donors, HOAM was able to serve the largest number of men to date in a single year and saw 20% of our host church's recent member growth come from men first interacting with HOAM and subsequently joining the church.

Contributions from our donors will carry us into our 2023 projections. As HOAM seeks to execute our FY2023 vision with excellence, it's only through the generous contributions of both time and money from our leaders and members, as well as local businesses and individuals, that we're able to host our events that are equipping men with the tools and skills to lead effectively and grow in faith.

WHAT'S NEXT

WHAT ARE SOME OF HOAM'S STRATEGIC INITIATIVES AND PLANS FOR THE 2023 CALENDAR YEAR?

NEW CHURCH PARTNERSHIPS

As the organization continues to develop standardized practices for building new groups and classes, training leaders, and executing HOAM Work projects, we are partnering with additional churches across Indianapolis and beyond to equip churches and serve vulnerable members of the local community. 5 new Heart of a Man Initiatives launch in early 2023 across the Chicagoland area and 1 in Indianapolis.

HEART GROUPS AND WORKSHOPS

We are focused intently on building out and launching a formal structure for Heart Groups, allowing us to grow our leader base and reach more men in need of help processing life-long issues and navigating challenges common to men. We will expand our reach through developing training material and centralizing Heart Groups to one night a month where all groups will meet, learn, and grow at the same time.

Workshops we plan to host this year include classes to teach the Deep Waters Bible Study Process, a method for exploring and studying the Bible. We are also developing workshops focused on equipping men with valuable life skills.

HOAM WORK

Heart of a Man works in close partnership with the local church to mobilize men to serve widows and vulnerable individuals by fixing and repairing that which is broken in their homes. Our goal is 2 projects a month, growing from 16 service events in 2022 to 24 in 2023. This has proven to be an effective way to get more men involved in the lives of people of their church.

CITY-WIDE CONFERENCE

Heart of a Man is in the process of structuring a city-wide men's conference for the purposes of unifying the men of Indianapolis to:

- Celebrate the work the Lord has done in their lives.
- Reach the unchurched men of our city.
- Bring awareness to men's issues.
- Develop a unified approach to solving some of the more pressing social issues in our city.
- Inspire men to get connected in their local church.

GOOD TIMES

Competition, food, and having fun are vital in helping men build lasting friendships, foster a sense of connection to a greater purpose, and create entry points for new men to experience HOAM. We are planning to grow from 2 events to 12 large events per year.
