

Day 1 | Read Exodus 20:1-2, Psalm 16:9, Micah 6:8, Romans 12:1, and Titus 2:11-12.

Principle: God provides His love, grace, and mercy as a foundation for our response to His laws and commands.

1. Why would God provide His name and what He did for the Hebrews before setting up laws designed to govern their hearts?
2. Despite knowing who God is and what He's done, what keeps us from living within the boundary lines which He has clearly drawn for us?

Day 2 | Read Exodus 20:3-11, Matthew 22:37-38, 1 Corinthians 8:4-6, Genesis 2:1-3, and Hebrews 4:9-10.

Principle: God alone, not man, sets the rules for how we are to relate to Him.

1. What is the heart behind the four critical laws that guide how we are to walk with and relate to God?
2. Which of these four do you violate in your heart and through your behavior? (Think deeply beyond the explicit words of the commands and try to give examples from your own life.)

Day 3 | Read Exodus 20:12-17, Matthew 5-7, and Matthew 22:39.

Principle: God alone, not man, sets the rules for how we are to relate to our neighbors.

1. What is the heart behind the six critical laws that guide how we are to relate to our neighbors?
2. What specifically makes it challenging for you to uphold some of these commands?

Day 4 | Read Exodus 20:18-26, Philippians 2:12-13, Acts 9:31, and Revelation 14:7.

Principle: God showcases His power to cause man to fear Him and to find Jesus.

1. What did Moses tell the Hebrews is God's purpose in causing them to fear Him?
2. How do you experience the fear of God? Where in your life has the fear of God led you away from sin and closer to Jesus?
