

Day 1 | Read Genesis 39:1-6a and Colossians 3:23

1. Joseph was likely the first person to record this account of his life. Why do you think he assigned all his success to God?
2. What do your results, either good or mediocre, say about God to the people around you?

Day 2 | Read Genesis 39:6b and Ezekiel 28:12-14

1. Why do you think God singles out some men, like Joseph, to be handsome and well built?
2. How has your view of your own body impacted your thoughts and behaviors?

Day 3 | Read Genesis 39:7-20, Matthew 4:1-11, and 1 Corinthians 10:13

1. Why do you think God exposed Joseph to this repeated sexual temptation?
2. What do you think helped Joseph refrain from giving in to Potiphar's wife?
3. Read Romans 12:1-2. How can you get better prepared to handle a temptation which continually presents itself to you?

Day 4 | Read Genesis 39:21-23, Micah 6:8, and Matthew 25:31-46

1. Why do you think God allowed Joseph to suffer through yet another painful injustice?
2. How have life's "prisons" or hardships changed you? (Please try to write down at least one specific example.)
3. What in your character do you think God sees which may need to be further refined?
